(OVER)

For those of you who may not have known Terry Thompson, he and others were the founders and director of this tournament over 22 years ago. Terry was also at one time the Lake City High School Volleyball coach, a teacher, upper elementary principal, referee, Lake City High School Athletic Director, a wonderful husband, father, and friend. All profits from this tournament will be used for a scholarship fund in his name. Terry passed away January 10, 2004 after a long battle with cancer. He will always be missed.
